

BEYOND SPEECH THERAPY LEARNING, LLC

"Helping Children Achieve New Heights"

My name is Michaelanne Roberts Pelleya and I am a speech pathologist with a passion. I hope you will find this microblog to be a valuable resource. Each week I will provide you with information regarding language development, articulation, or pre-reading skills. You will also find tips to help your child at home.

You can reach me toll free at 866-395-1911 or at ma@bstlearningdirect.com

What should my child know by the end of 4th grade?

Listening

1. Listen to and understand information presented by others.
2. Listen for specific purposes.

Speaking

1. Use words appropriately in conversation.
2. Use language effectively.
3. Participate in group discussions.
4. Give directions to others.
5. Summarize and restate ideas.
6. Make effective oral presentations.

Reading

1. Read for specific purposes.
2. Read grade level books fluently.
3. Use previously learned information to understand new material.
4. Follow written directions.
5. Take brief notes.
6. Paraphrase content.
7. Make inferences from texts.
8. Explain author's purpose for writing.

Writing

1. Write several paragraphs about the same topic.
2. Write with a beginning, middle and end.

3. Organize writing to convey an idea.
4. Edit final copy for grammar, punctuation, and spelling.